

2023-24 Budget Adjustment Request Guide for Residency Expenses

Note: $1,000 has already been included in the Cost of Attendance for Residency Interview Expenses.

Allowed residency expenses

- Reasonable economy round-trip travel (air, train, ground transportation and/or automobile)
- Reasonable costs of lodging and meals. See the GSA link at the bottom of this form
- ERAS Application fees
- NRMP Application fees

Residency expenses not allowed

- Travel or meals for spouse, child, anyone other than the student
- Lodging and meal costs that exceed the GSA rates
- First class airfare

When to request an increase for residency expenses

Request a budget increase to add residency interview costs:

1. As reimbursement of expenses after interview expenses are paid, OR
2. As an advance to pay anticipated interview expenses (with special circumstances)

Requesting reimbursement after interview expenses are paid

Documents will be reviewed and the approved reimbursement amount will be processed as a loan increase per the signed authorization on the Residency Interviews Budget Adjustment Request Form. $1,000 is already included in the Cost of Attendance and will be subtracted from the total amount approved.

Requesting an advance for anticipated expenses

Documents will be reviewed and an expense amount approved. Fifty percent (50%) of the approved amount will be processed as a loan increase. The remaining 50% of the approved funding will be disbursed or adjusted after receipts for all expenses associated with interviews and travel have been submitted.

Disbursement/Adjustment procedures

- $1,000 is already included in the cost of attendance and will be subtracted from the total amount approved.
- If the total amount of the receipts matches the amount of the advance that was approved, the remaining 50% of funds will be disbursed.
- If the total amount of the receipts is less than the amount that was advanced, the difference will be subtracted from the remaining 50% not yet disbursed.
- If no receipts are submitted, a financial aid hold will be placed on your student tuition account. The hold will not be released until receipts are submitted.
